Role of the committee

Anand Vishwa Gurukul College of Law has students coming from various socio-economic backgrounds. The college always takes efforts to provide each and every student with equal opportunities. The Committee for Welfare of SC, ST, OBC and Minority is established to provide exposure to the students coming from reserved category or minority backgrounds. The committee plays a vital role in putting forth the requirements of such students before the management. It provides a platform to the students to voice their needs and find solutions to their problems. Through the Committee the institution endeavors to identify students and understand their needs and concerns and takes efforts for welfare of these students.

Functions of the Committee

The functions of the Committee are as follows:

- Developing and revising policies and plans for the welfare and development of the SC, ST, OBC, and Minority groups. This involves providing solutions to the social, educational, economic, and political imbalances that these groups experience.
- To provide a Book Bank service to students from underrepresented groups.
- Assisting students from reserved classes in applying for various scholarships supported by the Social Welfare Department and other government initiatives.
